Dear Ms. Ariel Fleurimond,

After some consideration, we are pleased to offer employment within the Facility as Equipment Room Attendant. As discussed in our interview, your hourly rate will be $ 10.00/hr and you will be employed between 10 to 20 hours per week (for a summary of your schedule, please see the attached schedule for your respective work area which you may keep for your records). Your official start date will be 01/04/2007.

Please be advised that you must get your 2006-2007 On-Campus Student Employee Application (included in this envelope) approved by a Wasserman Center representative. We cannot process payment for any student employee who has not submitted both an approved Student Employee Application and an information sheet for this academic year.

Please comply with the following steps to finalize your employment status at the Facility:

 or Passport
 or Social Security Card

- ② Present this letter at the Equipment Room to receive your uniform.

- ④ Complete an Information Sheet (included). Include the completed form, along with all original contents, in this envelope.
- ⑤ Leave this envelope, along with all completed forms and original contents, in Alex Martinez's inbox at the Administrative Office.

After completing this process, you may experience a delay of 2 full pay periods before you receive your first bi-weekly payment. For your convenience you will find a copy of the Facility's student employee pay schedule and a direct deposit form, should you chose to enroll in this benefit (recommended). You may include a completed direct deposit form with your Student Employment Packet for expedient processing; however you may turn this form in at your discretion.
